I. Legal Issue and Discussion:

The Court entered Judgment in this matter on July 3, 2008. Under Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, the time for filing a notice of appeal is thirty days from the entry of judgment. The time for filing the notice is extended by the filing of a motion for attorneys fees only "if the district court extends the time to appeal under Rule 58." F.R.A.P. 4(a)(4)(A)(iii).

Neither the present Judgment nor the Order Re Motion For Attorney's Fees and Costs specifies whether the motion for attorneys fees extends the time to appeal under Rule 58. The district court's Judgment does state that the district court "shall retain jurisdiction in this matter until final determination of the amount owed by Plaintiff for attorney's fees and costs." This suggests to plaintiff that the Court may have intended to extend the time for appeal so that the court could rule on the attorney's fees motion, but it would be helpful to the parties for the issue to be clarified.

II. Conclusion:

For the avoidance of doubt and so that the parties may fully known their rights and duties with respect to the Judgment, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the court clarify whether its order with respect to attorney's fees and costs extends the time to appeal under Rule 58.
